GIRONA · TARRAGONA

FOR THOSE WHO ARRIVE BEFORE MONDAY, OCTOBER 7TH WHO WOULD LIKE TO DISCOVER TWO CITIES WITH A LOT OF HISTORY.

GIRONA

SATURDAY OCTOBER 5TH TOUR

Girona is a city with the tranquility of a town, but with the appeal of big cities. Take a quiet stroll through the historic center, visit its monuments and museums, comfortably walk its streets and squares.

With a great history, Girona allows you to travel through more than two thousand years of history from two fortified enclosures: the Força Vella and the medieval quarter. The first corresponds to its Roman founding, and the second to the expansion of its walls during the 14th and 15th centuries. The numerous monuments that have lasted into our time conserve remarkable artistic riches.

The appeal of Girona is completed by the intriguing Jewish quarter, the beautiful streets, and porticoed squares, the exultant Baroque spaces, and the nineteenth-century buildings by Rafael Masó.

The city with the best preserved Jewish district in Europe, the city where "El Perfume" was filmed, where legend has it that "you can only go back to Girona if you have kissed the bottom of the lioness."

It is one of the first rituals that we will do as soon as we arrive in the city... you will want to return!

ITINERARY

This Tour is designed for those who arrive on Friday, October 4th, staying at our hotel in Santa Susanna and having dinner there to rest and head out on Saturday first thing after a hearty breakfast.

We will leave at 9:30 am, heading to Girona, we have a one and half hour journey to enjoy its history, its shops, squares, staircases, and the great Cathedral with one of the largest naves in Europe.

At noon you can have lunch at any of its picturesque restaurants, visit the city walls, the gardens, or "El call" (Jewish neighborhood), and do some of the latest shopping.

We will start returning about 6:00 pm to arrive at the hotel where we will await another delicious and abundant dinner and enjoy the hotel entertainment. A complete day!

TARRAGONA

SUNDAY OCTOBER 6TH TOUR

Declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO in 2000, its location on the shores of the Mediterranean Sea on the Costa Dorada, with its warm water beaches, as well as its recreation centers and historical tradition and artistic heritage, makes it a first-rate center for tourist attraction.

Its origin dates back to the ancient Roman Tarraco, with more than 1500 years of history. The "Archaeological Ensemble of Tarraco" has made Tarragona considered as a World Heritage Site by Unesco.

Tarraco (Tarragona) was an ancient Roman city and during the Empire it was one of the main cities of Hispania.

On the shores of the Mediterranean is the Roman Amphitheater and the walled city, Roman temples, its cathedral, and the incredible Roman Circus, among many other attractions.

A city full of history.

ITINERARY

This Tour is designed for those who arrive on Friday, October 4th or Saturday, October 5th and stay at our hotel in Santa Susanna.

We will leave at 9:00 am, after breakfast, to visit the walled city, the Roman Circus, the cathedral, and take a tour on the tourist train.

We will see the amphitheater and we can have lunch at La Pla de la Seu (former City Council building) on one of the patios of its many restaurants.

Later we can visit the and have a coffee on the Mediterranean balcony and enjoy spectacular panoramic views of the sea.

We will leave again at 6:00 pm for the hotel, to have dinner and rest.
