Gran Canaria, a miniature continent. It is the third largest island of the Canary Islands archipelago and houses, between its coasts, an enviable natural diversity.

The dunes of Maspalomas shift with the wind to provide each of its visitors with a unique and unrepeatable panorama. In addition, with a wide variety of natural parks, you can enjoy a tropical paradise without leaving Europe.

The town center in the city of Las Palmas de Gran Canaria lets you to discover the stone streets with centuries of history and ancient architecture that contrasts with the tropical beaches around the whole island.
